

NewLevel Egypt - Become a partner!

Are you a young and dynamic person in Egypt or another Middle Eastern country? Are you looking to start up your own event management company? Willing to work for what you believe is one of the best career options for outgoing, organized personalities?

NewLevel Egypt LLC, the successful event management company, offers you the opportunity to become a franchisee. Your benefits are –

- A well established corporate identity.
- Extensive training, counseling and support before and during you start working on your own.
- Administrative support.
- Promotional support.
- Help with events, facilitating access to equipment and specialists.
- Constant feedback from NewLevel Management.

NewLevel Egypt LLC will offer you a franchise contract, providing you with our corporate experience, support and training, at the very feasible contractual fee of 3,000 USD!

You will receive three months training at NewLevel Head Office, where we will show you the ropes. You'll learn not only the practical running of events in the team building, marketing and CSR fields; we will also give you extensive background information about administrative areas. Then, when you start working, we will assist you and monitor you, guiding you through the initial phases of your startup.

Please contact us to learn more about these opportunities, and to obtain our franchisee questionnaire. contact@newlevegypt.com